Chapter III	Site description	55
	1. General overview	55
	A. Natural topography and landscaping prior to construction of Nara Capital	55
	B. Stratigraphy and relative chronology of archaeological features	59
	2. Features of city street plan	71
	A. Second Street	71
	B. East Second Intra-ward avenue	74
	C. Block boundary streets	75
	3. Features of Blocks 1, 2, 7, and 8 of East Second Ward on Third Street	76
	A. Introduction	76
	B. Phase A	79
	C. Phase B	87
	D. Phase C	90
	E. Phase D	94
	F. Phase E	99
	G. Phase F	103
	H. Phase G	107
	I. Features of indeterminate age	108
	J. Features antedating the Nara Capital	121
	4. Features of Block 5 of East Second Ward on Second Street	123
	A. Chronological divisions	123
	B. Phase a	123
	C. Phase b	124
	D. Phase c	124
	E. Phase d	125
	F. Phase e	126
	G. Phase f	128
	H. Phase g	129
Chapter IV	Artifacts	131
	1. Mokkan	131
	A. Features yielding mokkan	131
	B. Mokkan from Prince Nagaya's Mansion	137
	C. Mokkan from Second Street	144

2. Roof tiles and bricks	159
A. Round eave tiles	159
B. Flat eave tiles	181
C. Glazed tiles	199
D. Round and flat tiles	200
E. Constructional tiles (other than round, flat, and eave tiles) and reutilized tiles	206
F. Roof tiles with written or stamped characters	208
3. Pottery	209
A. From Ditch SD 4750, plus clay objects from same	210
B. From wells of Phases A and B	216
C. From Ditch SD 5100, plus clay objects from same	219
D. From Ditches SD 5300 and SD 5310	249
E. From gutter lining north side of Second Street	259
F. From gutters of intra-ward street of East Second Column	261
G. From gutters of block boundary streets	261
H. From wells of Phase C and later	263
I. T'ang and Nara three-colored (glazed) pottery	278
J. Pottery with ink-drawn human faces	278
K. Pottery with ink or etched inscriptions, and stamped pottery	279
L. Clay objects	280
4. Wooden implements	290
A. From Ditch SD 4750	290
B. From gutter lining west side of intra-ward street of East Second Column	298
C. From Ditch SD 5100	305
D. From Ditch SD 5300	324
E. From Ditch SD 5310	333
F. From gutter lining north side of Second Street	334
G. From wells	334
H. From pits and post holes	338
5. Coins	341
6. Metal, glass, and stone objects	344
A. Metal objects	344
B. Clay and glass objects, slag	351
C. Worked stone objects	355
7. Floral and faunal remains	358

Chapter V	Interpretations	363
1.	Mokkan	363
	A. Residents of Prince Nagaya’s Mansion and its household management	363
	B. Second Street cache of mokkan and the issue of the Empress’s palace	408
2.	Roof tiles and bricks	455
	A. Problems presented by the tiles used at Prince Nagaya’s Mansion	455
	B. Chronological assessment of roof tile Types 6282-6721	461
	C. Utilization of tiles as seen from chronological divisions and distributions of round eave tiles	467
3.	Pottery	481
	A. Sub-divisions of the Nara Palace typology	481
	B. Pottery from Prince Nagaya’s Mansion	486
	C. Special characteristics of the pottery assemblage from the wood scrap layer of Ditch SD 5100	492
4.	Reconstruction of the city street grid and its relation to building placement	497
	A. Reconstruction of the city street grid	497
	B. Relation of building locations and the city street grid	501
5.	Evolution and architectural characteristics of structural features	508
	A. Introduction	508
	B. Changes in Blocks 1, 2, 7, and 8 of East Second Ward on Third Street	508
	C. Changes in Block 5 of East Second Ward on Second Street	520
	D. Architectural characteristics of Prince Nagaya’s Mansion	521
6.	Characteristics of Hearth SX 4495	525
7.	Conclusion	529
Supplementary Discussion
1	Site preservation and ground surface level marking	536
2	The “Model of Prince Nagaya’s Mansion,” built in Fiscal Year 1990	537
3	Macroscopic plant remains from Ditches SD 4750, SD 5100, SD 5300, and SD 5310	543
