

“Site Utilization Grounded in Historical Context: Re-enacting Rituals/Events and Rebuilding Interregional Exchange”

Report of the Research Symposium on the Preservation and Utilization of Historic Sites in FY 2020

Table of Contents

I Research Reports

Outline of the Symposium	3
1. Utilization Grounded in Historic Context of the Nara Palace Site	5
UCHIDA Kazunobu (Nara National Research Institute for Cultural Properties)
2. Re-enacting Ancient Events at the Nara Palace (Special Historic Site): Commemorative Events of the 1300th Anniversary of the Nara Capital as Example	19
TATEISHI Kenji (Board of Education, Nara City)
3. On the Conduct of Re-enacted Events at Shurijo Castle Park: Centering on the New Year’s Morning Worship Ritual	29
KOUKI Atsushi (Okinawa Churashima Foundation Research Center)
4. Re-enactment and Regionality of the “Culinary History” of Banquets at the Ōuchi Clan Mansion Site, and the Cuisine of Medieval Formal Visits and Tea Gatherings	35
EGO Michiko (Japanese Culinary Historian)
5. Re-enacted Events at the Saiku Historic Site and Their Issues: Seeking Balance Between Historicity and Easy-to-Understand Imagery	43
OKAWA Katsuhiko (Saiku Historical Museum)
6. Events Re-enacting the Korean Embassies to Japan: Centering on the Case of Shimonoseki	53
MACHIDA Kazuto (Tsushima Museum)
7. The Minami Hiki Kiln Site Group and the Musashi Provincial Temple Site: Roof Tiles Connecting Provincial Temple Construction in the Heisei Era	63
TESHIMA Fumiko (Hatoyama Town Board of Education)
Record of the Discussion	69

II Case Studies

1. On the “Introduction to Jomon Culture and Cuisine” Project of Tokamachi City	83
ABE Satoshi (Tokamachi City Board of Education)
2. A Historic Experience Program Utilizing Cultural Properties in Asuka Village: On the Re-enactment of Ancient Mortuary Ritual at the Ishibutai Tumulus (Special Historic Site)	91
TATSUMI Shunsuke (Asuka Village Board of Education)

3. Reconstruction of an Ancient Meal Serving by the Nara National Research Institute for Cultural Properties	97
TAKAHASHI Chinatsu (Nara National Research Institute for Cultural Properties)
4. Considering the “Utilization of Cultural Properties” from a Practical Viewpoint: The Case of Promoting the “Living History in Kyoto, Nijo-jo Castle” Project	103
HAMASAKI Kanako (Committee for Living History in Kyoto, Nijo-jo Castle)
5. The Historic Experience Program Utilizing Cultural Properties of Wakayama City	115
TOMINAGA Rina (Wakayama City Cultural Promotion Department)
6. On the Daimyo Procession and Other Experiential Programs at Himeji Castle: Centering on the Re-enactment of a Procession for the Daimyo’s Attendance at Edo	119
KUDOU Shigehiro (Himeji Center for Research into Castles and Fortifications)
7. Revival of the Shimazu Clan’s Traditional Culture at Sengan-en Garden	133
IWAKAWA Takuo (Sengan-en)
8. The Project of Re-enacting the Korean Embassies to Japan: The Case of Kure City	139
OGAWA Hidefumi(Ranto Cultural Promotion Foundation)
Column: Experiencing the Sea That Has Nurtured Faith Since Ancient Times: Utilization of the Living History Project for the World Heritage Site, “Sacred Island of Okinoshima and Associated Sites in the Munakata Region”	142
IRISA Tomoichiro (Fukuoka Prefecture) TOYOSAKI Shuhei (Fukuoka Prefecture)
9. On the Korean Cultural Heritage Foundation’s Project for Re-enacting Court Rituals	145
An Taewook (Korean Cultural Heritage Foundation)

III Materials

IV Summary

On Site Utilization Grounded in Historic Context	171
UCHIDA Kazunobu (Nara National Research Institute for Cultural Properties)
